

Bivalve purification systems advice service

Inspection of new system or re-inspection of approved plant

- ✓ Advice on initial set up and microbiological testing as necessary
- ✓ On-site inspection with practical training as necessary
- ✓ Inspection using specialist equipment
- ✓ Checking of LEA/operator equipment offered (at inspection)
- ✓ Review of operator's system records
- ✓ A written confidential report with recommendations
- ✓ Follow-up and troubleshooting advice

Service from trained and experienced Cefas officers with over 20 years' experience of inspecting depuration systems in UK and Europe.

For further information and details of our charge out rates please contact Shellfish Hygiene on 01305 206695/206720 or email andrew.younger@cefass.co.uk

